

I respectfully urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160. I pay for my XM programming and it should be my right to choose what I listen too. If broadcast programmers were more accountable and selective about their programming, they wouldn't feel threatened by XM. Thank you for your consideration in this matter